SEUNG YOUN KIM DISSERTATION AWARD

Application Checklist:

- Application Cover Sheet.

- Project Description: A detailed discussion of the dissertation project that describes the main arguments or questions addressed by the project and indicates the projected date of completion. Project descriptions should not exceed two single-spaced pages in 12-point, Times New Roman typeface, with one-inch margins on all sides. Project descriptions that exceed the length requirement or do not conform to formatting requirements will not be considered.

- A list of references cited (not to exceed one page).

- Academic transcript (unofficial copies from Self Service Carolina will be accepted).

- A CV or a Résumé.

- A letter from the student’s department chair stating that (1) if the student receives the award, she or he will be released from teaching one course in the year in which the award is made, and no additional funds will be required from the Center for Asian studies to release the student from teaching one course; and (2) the student will be ABD by no later than August 15, 2016. Letters may be emailed to Prof. Michael Hill, Director, Center for Asian Studies, hillmg@sc.edu.

- Two letters of recommendation from faculty or scholars familiar with the student’s dissertation project. One letter should be the student’s main adviser. Reference letters must be in sealed envelopes signed on the back by recommenders.

Incomplete applications will not be accepted

All completed applications must be turned in by 4pm the day of the deadline to:
